ATLANTA, GA., SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 13, 1892.

THAT BIG MEETING,

Which Failed to Overturn the Hill

IS REGARDED AS A COMPLETE FAILURE.

Colonel John B. Fellows Laughs at the Mugwumps,

AS DOES CONGRESSMAN COCHRAN.

The New York Democracy Is Thoroughly United, and Will Send a Solid Hill Delegation to Chicago,

WASHINGTON, February 12 .- [Special.]-The anti-Hill demonstration in New York last night is looked upon here by New York demo-

They cannot see anything in it to cause any alarm to the straightout democrats of the Empire State.

Indeed, they look upon it with a great amount of contempt. Instead of it creating any fear as to democratic success in New York state, it is looked upon as rather a good thing for the democracy, for with this mugwump crewd fighting the straightout democrats, the straightouts are certain to be united and held together as they have never held before. It is the same old crowd who have fought the regular democracy of New York for the past three years. I saw some of the New York democrats about the matter today. There is not the least amount of annoyance expressed by them.

Congressman John R. Fellows, one of the greatest of New York orators, when approached this afternoon, said:
"I have seen Bob Ingersoll fill Cooper Union to overflowing to denounce Christ; why should it not be filled, then, to denounce Hill? The meeting amounts to nothing. - The men who were the leaders in the meeting are men who have never supported Hill, and have always attempted to split the regular democracy of New York."

"Do you have any fears of this crowd calling another convention to select delegates to

"Not in the least. There will be no other convention, and there will be no opposition delegates to the regular delegates. The Cleve-land men, you will observe, are fighting to elect delegates in the February convention. Could they be successful, they would be pertectly satisfied with the convention on the date it has been called. It is simply a fight made by Mr. Cleveland's friends either to carry New York or for him to destroy the party. They seemed determined to rule or ruin, but, fortunately for the democracy, they can do neither. The convention was called regularly in the regular way, and the executive committee of the democracy was unani-mously in favor of the date selected. The great mass of democrats in New York are thoroughly satisfied. It is absurd for any one to think that this opposition will amount

What Cochran Has to Say. Congressman W. Bourke Cochran, the great Tammany orator and leader, in response to an inquiry, said: "I look upon that meeting last night with contempt. It amounts to nothing. It will do nothing, and even if it tried, could accomplish nothing. I think this is about the last you will hear of this crowd of mugwumps. There were a few democrats in the meeting, and the democrats will support the regular ticket. I look upon mugwump opposition as beneficial to the democratic party. We have never gained an tion in New York with the mugwump support, and were they with us now I would have very grave doubts as to the result. New York will send a solid Hill delegation to the national convention, and I feel confident we will carry New York in the next presidential election by the largest mafority for the democracy that the great state has ever rolled up. I believe we will get at least sixty thousand majority."

Other Opinions Coincide. All the other New York democrats spoken to express the same opinion about this, and if the democrats of the country are no more anmoyed by last night's demonstration than they are, it will not be given a second thought. These men believe that the democracy of the United States is anxious to elect a presi dent the next time. They believe th mocracy of the south recognizes the fact that, with New York and the other doubtful states combined upon a man who is absolutely certain to carry New York, the party is sure to win, and they further believe that all sections of this country stand willing to unite upon a man with whom we can win. With Ser Hill they know that the democracy will win. With Mr. Cleveland the chances are the republicans would again be in power, and with another attempt, and perhaps, a successful one. to foist the force bill upon the country. In view of all this, democratic success should be considered above all things. The personal ambitions of no man should be considered.

Steve Clay in Washington. Colonel Steve Clay, of Marietta, Ga., spent today here looking upon congress from the

To Vote on Silver. The silver men are determined to have the house vote upon a free coinage bill. They have gotten up a petition signed by over one hundred democrats, to the committee on rules, to report a day for a vote upon silver. Mr. Mills was one of the democrats who declined to sign it. The rules committee will probably grant the request of the petition. CIGARETTE HABIT.

Congress to Be Asked to Make the Internal Revenue Tax $10 Per Thousand.

WASHINGTON, February 12.—The ways and means committee of the house of representatives will be petitioned to prepare a bill invoking the paternal condemnation of the government upon the cigarette habit. Representatives Cochran, Cummings and Stahlnecker, of New York, all have in their possession bills which they have been petitioned to introduce, providing for the suppression of cigarette manufacture by imposing an internal revenue tax of $10 per thousand on all imported or domestic cigarettes sold in this country. Revenue Tax $10 Per Thousand.

AMERICAN SILVER

Will Not Be Accepted as a Substitute by the Anti-Silver Men. WASHINGTON, February 12.—Yesterday Senator Teller, in view of the talk last year, which has the American product, saw a number of leading senators, with the view to ascertaining the feeling on the senate side. He found that many leading republicans were opposed to it, and that it had very little support from men opposed to unlimited free coinage. Messrs, Sherman, Merrill and Alli-son, members of the finance committee, authorize the use of their names as more opposed to this proposition than absolute free coinage.

STILL ELECTING HILL DELEGATES.

Their Leader. ALBANY, N. Y., February 12.-[Special.]-Notwithstanding the great noise made by mugwump democratic mass meetings, gotten up and presided over by ex-office holders of the Cleveland administration, and who are doing all within their power to turn the tide of popular favor from Senator Hill, passing solutions censuring him and the state com mittee for doing what has been deemed to be for the best interests of party success, the good work goes on of electing Hill delegates to the state convention. But few conventions were held today. Lewis county having but one district, has chosen its three Hill delegates. In Westchester county, first district, three Hill men were chosen. Madison county will be represented by three Hill delegates. Monroe country also sends Hill delegates from the third district. Thus it will be seen that but four district conventions were held, each electing Hill delegates, twelve in all. A late dispatch says all opposition to Hill has been abandoned in the Orleans county convention to be held tomorrow. Reports from all sections in the interior give promise of solid Hill delegations. Albany will be the last of the counties to hold its convention, it having been decided not to hold such a conventin till the 20th. This county has always been a Cleveland county, but when the time comes her representatives will be found in the Hill column. Senator Hill feels very sanguine of success. The opposition neeting may be looked upon with a great degree of favor, as they will not only show who the malcontents are, but will also have a tendency to spur the Hill forces to greater action where the opposition is the most pronounced. The only ground upon which the followers of Mr. Cleveland have a chance to make a stand is the early date at which the convention is to be called. The Hill forces are organized, the Cleveland forces disorganized. CULLOM FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

He Responds to a Toast at the Marquette Club's Banquet. CHICAGO, February 12.—The Marquette Club celebrated the birthday of Abraham Lincoln with a banquet at Auditorium hotel tonight, at which covers were laid for over five hundred persons.

Prominent republicans from all parts of the country were bidden to the feast, and a number of men of national reputation were present. The principle address of the evening was delivered by Senator Cullom, of Illinois, who has lately announced himself as a candidate for the presidency of the United States, and who responded to the toast, North Carolina Opposed to Cleveland.

North Carolina Opposed to Cleveland.

Raleigh, N. C., February 12.—Today State
Auditor Sanderlin returned from the southeastern part of the state, and was interviewed, as it was learned he had some important news regarding the feeling of the alliance towards Cleveland. He says the master of a suballiance, after a meeting at which sixty-six members—were present, called upon them before they left the hall to state as to how many of the crowd would vote against Cleveland if he were nominated. The sixty-six arose as one man. At another suballiance the inquiry was made, and all again arose. The auditor, who is a leading allianceman, said: "I tell you, it will handicap every democratic speaker if Cleveland is nominated. nan, said: "Tell you, it will nandicap every democratic speaker if Cleveland is nominated. I will go further, and say that the alliance will not vote for Cleveland, and that his nomination will cost the democrats the electoral vote of North Carolina."

A Republican Convention Splits. CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., February 12 .- [Special.]-The first thing done in the republican convention at Nashville today was to "split," and up to a late hour the split continues. Captain A. G. Sharp leads one faction and Mr. Houk, the other. The split arises on the question as to how officers are selected, Captain Sharp insisting on a committee doing the work, Mr. Houk on a popular vote of the convention.

The reason is patent. Evans, of Chattanooga, is chairman, and if he appoints the committee to elect officers, Sharp has a cinch. If the appoint-nent is relegated to a popular vote, a hard fight

The Tennessee Republicans. NASHVILLE, Tenn., February 12 .- [Special.]-The republican state executive committee met this morning with ten members present, the others being represented by proxy. The faction, led by ex-Congressman Evans and A. G. Sharpe of Chattanooga, desired to have two conventions, one to select delegates to the national convention, and the other to nominate a candidate for governor. This proposition was voted down, however, and one convention was called to meet in Nashand one convention was called to meet in Nash-ville May 4th. The basis of representation will be one delegate to each 200 votes for Harrison.

THE IRISH BILL

Will Be Equally Unsatisfactory to Both Sides of the House.

LONDON, February 12 .- The Irish county coun cils bill will be brought up in the house next Thursday. The McCarthyites and the Parnellites will unite in opposition to it. Mr. Gladstone will be on hand to tear it to pieces. The electoral districts are arranged on the American gerrymander-

Freezing and Starving.

London, February 12.—A dispatch from Penza, capital of a government of that name in the southwestern part of what is known as Great southwestern part of what is known as Great Russia, is published in The Chronicle today. The dispatch says the thermometor registers 58 degrees below zero, and there is terrible suffering among the peasants. A number of men were frozen to death on the high roads, and so intensely cold is it that birds drop dead from the trees in which they had sought shelter. None of the children in Penza are allowed to go to school. A quantity of grain for the famine sufferers arrived at Penza, but it is impossible to distribute it among the peasants in the surrounding country owing to the fact that nearly all the horses have been killed for food or sold to procure money with which to buy the necessities of life. Five thousand horses were killed in Penza alone, and it is estimated that several million draught animals have been killed throughout the empire since autumn. Typhus fever, smallpox and diphtheria are decimating the inhabitants around Penza. Two hundred peasants have dued from these diseases.

Colonel Neshitt advised the planters to raise less cotton and to use more fertilizers on their lands. He also urged them to try the culture of tobacco, not as a substitute for cotton, but as an experiment. Colonel Redding, of the experiment station, spoke briefly on the same line.

REPORTS FROM THE BUSINESS CENTERS.

A Decided Improvement in Some Lines of Goods, and the Outlook Favorable. Depleted State of the Treasury.

NEW YORK, February 12 .- Business failures ccurring throughout the country during the past week, as reported to R. G. Dun & Co., number for the United States 235, Canada, 41; total 276, against 319 last week. Silver and cotton have declined yet further, the latter to 73-16 cents, the lowest price for many years, and silver bullion to 41 pence at London, the lowest price ever recorded, though there followed a slight recovery to 41½. Cotton re-ceipts and exports have both been much larger than a year ago, but stocks on he crease but slowly and are very, large and spec-ulative sales for the week have been 932,000 bales. Wheat declined 11 on sales of 46,000, 000 bushels, exports being seriously diminished, and corn has fallen 11 cents on sales of 15,000,000 bushe's, western receipts being unusually large. Lard and hogs were somewhat

The Iron Market.

The production of pig iron is about stationary, amounting February 1st to 187,383 tons, against 188,082 January 1st, and 146,050 a yea ago. The stocks of charcoal iron are substantially unchanged, and unsold stocks of anthracite are a little smaller than a month ago, but the stocks of coke iron are considerably larger, so that consumption does not appear quite up to the enormous supply. No change appears in the market for pig iron, and rails are in small demand at fair prices. Bar iron does not improve, and the demand for plates is smaller than was expected, while the collapse of the combinations in beams and barbed wire has a somewhat depressing in-

A General Improvement. Reports from other cities indicate a genera mprovement in trade. At Philadelphia the dry goods trade is quite encouraging, and business in groceries is generally satisfactory, but very little is being done in wool, and other lines are quiet and without change. Building permits were fewer in January than last year, but have increased largely in February thus but have increased largely in February thus far. The prospects at Baltimore are much brighter, with a decided improvement in leather, shoes and harness. Better accounts also come from the south. At Louisville trade has improved; at Nashville it is very fair; at Memphis light, but improving, and at Montgomery increasing. At New Orleans business in all lines is only fair, but there is a slight improvement in cotton, and sugar is firm and active with light receipts.

The treasury continues to lose gold, and has caused some embarrassment during the week by refusing to supply domestic exchange ex-cept upon actual deposits of gold, but it has put out $281,000 more money of all kinds than it has taken in. With the much reduced revenuo and large disbursement required by ap-propriations, the treasury is not in shape to bear with ease the strain which financial va-garies in congress might put upon it, but confi-dence is felt that no measure calculated to do harm can be passed over a veto. Meanwhile, the danger of accumulation in excess of public needs is illustrated by the furious speculation in stocks and cotton, which may yet result in some difficulty.

DANGLING FROM A TREE LIMB.

Incendiaries Lynched Near Tuscaloosa for Their Crimes.

Tuscaloosa, Ala., February 12 .- [Special.] - Several house burnings have occurred in the Sylvan neighborhood, thirteen miles from here, within the past few weeks. Circumstances pointed to the fact that the same parties had engineered all the burnings. It was a determined posse of men who concluded to mete out justice to the fire flends. A party of men, after the burning of D. S. Robertson's store a few nights since, started out to track the criminals. They were found eight miles from the scene of their crime. The fire-bugs were negroes and ex-convicts. A preliminary trial was given them before a justice. They confessed to having burned Robertson's store, and two others, also being placed in charge of two guards to remain over night, the citizens retired. During the night a mob of thirty masked men overpowered the guards. The prisoners were found next morning dangling from a limb dead. On one's back was, "Warning to all house burners;" on the other, "Protection to our homes." ral house burnings have occurred in the Sylvan

A GEORGIAN IN TROUBLE.

He Went All the Way to New York to Be Caught by Sharps.

NEW YORK, February 12.—[Special.]—Three neat little packages, purporting to be packages of government greenbacks, two glittering revolvers and their extracted cartridges lay on the desk before Justice McMahon at the Tombs police court this morning.
Detective Carey brought J. G. Deloche, the man on whom the goods were found last night, and William Mackey, his companion, before the bar. Deloach's Trip.

Deloche is a tall, sleepy looking fellow. He talks with a marked southern accent. He said that he was a native of Edens, Ga., where he that he was a native of Edens, Ga., where he manages a farm for his father.

About nine months ago he said he received a letter telling him that if he would save up his money and come on to this city the writer would give him $100 for every $10. The letter was signed by George B. Fox. Deloche made no reply, and after about two months he received another letter of the same kind. Then the letters came more frequently, and a week ago he persuaded his brother-in-law, whom he had let into the secret, to give him $300 to come to this city with. He started out last Monday and reached Philadelphia yesterday.

Met by the Sharper.

There he was met by a man who came to the city with him. They walked up from the ferry, but Déloche could not tell what street; they were on. Finally his companion halted before a dark house, and told him to go in there and he would get his money. Once inside he found himself in the presence of a short man with black hair and moustache. The business was conducted, the proprietor telling him that, inasmuch as he was the first one from Georgia, he would give him $100 for $10. Deloche asked him how he could afford to give him so much money for $10, but the man would give him no answer. The man showed him several large bills and some smaller ones. Deloche examined them carefully, and, satisfied as to their genuineness, handed the man $300. The man then went latto a back room. He returned presently with a wooden box filled with bank bills. A $5, a $10 and a $1 bill lay on the top of the tree pachages. The man took up the $10 bill and showed it to Deloche.

justice, "and the man then put it back and closed the box. I thought that the $3,000 which the man had offered me for my $300 was in the box. I then left the place, but not knowing the way to the ferry, I asked a policeman. When I got down to the postoffice I saw a man walking slowly along beside me. I asked him which way to turn, and he said that he was going right down that way, and would be glad to accompany me. Then, you know the story of our arrest, and you see what I got."

The five, ten and one dollar bills on top of the packages were genuine. Green paper make up the rest of the packages. Mackey was held as suspected of being connected with the swindle, and Deloche as a witness. Deloche will also be arraigned for carrying concealed weapons.

WILL NUNNALLY INDICTED.

The Grand Jury of Spalding County Accused Him of the Murder of His Grandparents. GRIFFIN, Ga., February 12.—[Special.]—It was rumored on the streets last night that true bills have been found by the grand jury against W. W. Nunnally, Jerry Holt and Sam Kendall, for the aurder of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. M. Barrett. Today three bills were returned and became public. When it was known for a certainty last night that they had been found, in view of their not having been returned, it was deemed best not to mention the fact, lest some one be placed under censure for the act. What the evidence was on which the indictments were found is, of necessity, withheld, but it comes from good authority that it is of a most reliable source, and damaging in point of fact. These cases will not come up at the present term of court, but will very likely be heard in March at an adjourned term of court, which Judge Boynton has deemed necessary to finish up the docket and if possible clear the jail.

John A. McCall Elected President of the

New York Life. New York, February 12.—John A. McCall, comptroller of the Equitable Life Assurance Soclety, and formerly state superintendent of insur-ance, was duly and unanimously elected president of the New Life Insurance Company, at the meeting of the trustees today. The meeting was brief ang of the trustees today. The meeting was brief and harmonious. The conditions on which he intimated he would accept the position were agreed to by the trustees. The trustees created a new office, that of vice president. This was done in order to promote George W. Perkins, inspector of agencies for the company, whose services to the company, injereating $48,000,000 of new business, gained for him the title of "Bismarck of the Company." At the adjournment of the meeting, President McCall attended a meeting of the agents and managers, and delivered an address to them.

Gravel in Augusta. Augusta, Ga., February 12.-[Special.]-The city will give gravel a test as a material for permanently improving the streets. The council this afternoon gave the Augusta Gravel Company an order for 3,000 cubic yards, at $1 per cubic yard, order for 3,000 cubic yards, at $1 per cubic yard, the gravel to be used at once in paving McIntosh and Twigg streets, south of Calhoun, out to the county line. Work will be done by the county convicts, Judge Eve having agreed to co-operate with the city in improving the streets leading to the county roads. Arthur Bradley, representing the Warran Scharf Asphalt Company, is here trying to get the contract from the city to pave the streets with asphalt.

GREENESBORO, Ga., February 12.—[Special.]—In the superior court Sarah Bugg, a negro woman, was sentenced to six years in the penitentiary for burning a house. W. A. (Savington, colored, goes up for three years for larceny after trust. Savington was the organizer of a colored alliance and appropriated the funds of the order to his own use. The most important work by the grand jury was the election of a board of county commissioners. The old board, consisting of Judge J. B. Park, Hon. W. R. Wilson and Mr. E. A. Copelan, were re-elected.

Improvements for Greenville.
GREENVILLE, S. CA February 12.—[Special.]—
This city has granted $75,000 for a system of sewerage. The council, at a meeting last night, resolved to advertise at once for bids for construction and material to be in by March 14th. With our magnificent waterworks and a fine system of sewerage, together with our superb climate, we will have one of the most desirable towns for a residence in this country.

M. J. O'Brien Is in Dade County. CHATTANOGA, Tenn., February 12.—[Special.]— Late yesterday M. J. O'Brien, late supreme treasurer of the Catholic Knights of America indicted for purloining $75,000 from that order and several smaller amounts from various orphans. The sensation of the day is the sworn statement of Attorney C. C. Everett that O'Brien is concealed in Dade county, Georgia. The information was furnished by Fred Albright, O'Brien's bookkeeper. Fire in Birmingham. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., February 12 .- The paint and wall paper establishment of George W. Harrison, Twenty-first street, and Hopkins's stove and tin-ware store adjoining, burned this morning. Harrison's loss on stock is about eight thousand dollars and on building $5,000; insurance, $10,000. The Hopkins Tinware Company's loss on stock is $6,000; insurance, $7,000. The building belonged to F. C. Whitney, whose loss is $4,000, covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown. Typhus Fever Among Hebrews.

Typhus Fever Among Hebrews.

New York, February 12.—Investigation by the health officers has developed the existence of an epidemic of typhus fever among recently arrived Hebrew and Italian immigrants who came here by the steamer Massilia, January 30th. The Hebrews came from Odessa and were shipped at Marseilles. The Italians shipped at Naples. All were extremely poor and the Hebrews had suffered great privations before reaching Marseilles. They were among those driven from Russia. They had a stormy passage and were in a bad physical condition on arriving, but the typhus did not develop among them until some time after they landed.

now and the 1st of October next. Atlanta now has four medical colleges, the Atlanta, the Southern Medical, the Georgia Eclectic and the Women's Medical College of Georgia. Except the Women's Medical each owns-valuable and handsome property in Atlanta. The Atlanta Medical college is the oldest in the city and was organized years ago with such distinguished members of the profession as Dr. H. V. M. Miller, Dr. A. W. Calhoun, Dr. Todd and the late Dr. Westmoreland at its head. It rapidly sprang into prominence as an educational institution, and from its in-fancy almost has been considered as one of the finest and most secure medical schools in the south, a diploma from it indicating not only complete training, but deep study and complete training, but deep study and thorough research. A large, roomy and finely equipped building on the corner of Butler and Jenkins streets, is of itself a monument to the zeal and hard work of those who have labored for the school from which many of the most distinguished physicians and surgeons of the south today came.

So complete was the training of the Atlanta Medical college that it was inadequate to the demands made upon it fifteen years ago.

Physicians observed this, and moved by a devotion to their profession and a desire to see those wanting to follow it equipped for the work, decided to found another school. Dr. Thomas S. Powell, for years and years one of Atlanta's most prominent physicians, was one of the first observers, and at once went to work for another college. Dr. Powell had nover known what failure meant, and in 1879 sat under an umbrella one warm August afternoon to see the corner stone of the Southafternoon to see the corner stone of the South

That fall the school opened, and with such gentlemen as Dr. William Perrin Nicolson, Dr. G. G. Roy, Dr. A. G. Hobbs, Dr. W. S. Elkin and Dr. A. McF. Gaston at its head, has made a most pronounced success.

Subsequently the other two colleges were opened.

opened.
There was no rivalry between the Atlanta and the Southern, both of the same school, and year after year an army of graduates went out to do the work to which they had been trained.
But in 1884 a rivalry, though of a most viscally character sprant up.

friendly character, sprang up.

At that time Atlanta had no hospital. During that year a number of good ladies, bound by ties of marriage relationship and friendship to the professors of the Southern Medical ship to the professors or the Southern Medical college, held a fair for the purpose of raising money with which to erect a hospital. With the money the house and lot now known as the Providence infirmary were purchased and a hospital was opened.

This gave the Southern Medical college an edge on the Atlanta because the Southern had "clinics."

For a time it was openly apparent that the hospital and the Southern Medical college were separate institutions, but a few years ago the ladies who had secured the property surrendered it to a board of trustees. That board was composed of Dr. T. S. Powell, Dr. Nicolson, Dr. Roy and Dr. Bizzell. These same gentlemen were in charge of the college, and in a short time the Southern Medical college and the Providence infirmary were apparently. and the Providence infirmary were apparently and the Providence infirmary were apparently boon companions, if not actual partners. During these changes the Grady hospital was originated and found its location on a big lot just opposite the Atlanta Medical college. This made the devotees of the old college smile.

A year ago the general council began formulating plans for a board of control for the hospital, and among the names mentioned was Dr. A. W. Calhoun, of the Atlanta college, in connection with the board.

The election of the board was deferred-The election of the board was deferredand the matter went along without at tracting the attention of the public. The Southern Medical college, however, had an eye on the main chance. The college and hospital property had been increasing in value, and, recently, the board of trustees was offered $65,000 for the two. Some say that an offer of $75,000 has been made.
Even the smaller figures were an inducement, and the trustees began considering the proposition. A first step in the consideration, however, was securing a lot for a new building. Naturally the gentlemen went near the ing. Naturally the gentlemen went near the Grady hospital, and within the past few weeks have secured options on three pieces of propthat the people indicated were in straightened circumstances, and unless given an opportunity to earn a living, would probably have become a burden to the city or chargeable to the charity of those who could give them aid.

The paper went to the tax committee, and that committee began its usual investigation of papers referred. The Russian peddier was shown by members of the police department to be quite troublesome to the officers in many ways. Of course this did not apply to all of the class but it was sweeping enough to induce the tax committee to make a report to the council against the petition. The report will be considered by the council at the next meeting.

He sent to the vestry of Christ church of that city a formal letter yesterday declining to accept the flattering call sent him from that church. He has decided to remain in Atlanta's dean of St. Luke's cathedral, much to the gratification of his many friends all over the city and especially the large congregation of St. Luke's. Dr. Barrett the large congregation of St. Luke's. Dr. Barrett has worked devotedly and assiduously for the past six years for the advancement of Christianity past six years for the advancement of Christianity in Atlanta and the promotion of the interests of St. Luke's cathedral, and in both his success has been wonderful. He is one of the most able and earnest ministers in the south, and is universally popular and beloved. He has an interesting family that is beloved by all in Atlanta, which makes the announcement of his conclusion to remain here all the more gratifying. Mrs. Barrett is possessed of a brilliant intellect, which is supplemented by a charming and lovable character and polished social accomplishments. Her

Her presence in all religious and moral societies of the city has marked her as a tireless worker for Christianity, and the people of the city will rejoice that she is to remain with us. that she is to remain with us. St. Luke's is a large and prosperous parish, and the congregation has grown to such an extent that the present church edifice is inadequate to furnish accommodations for the members and furnish accommodations for the members and visitors.

At a meeting of the vestry Thursday night it was decided to secure a different location and erect a more commodious and handsome building. A committee was appointed to secure another lot close to Peachtree street and not further out than the junction of Peachtree and Ivy. The present lot is lowation and is very valuable owing to its central location and eligibility for business purposes. It will be disposed of and the amount realized used in purchasing another lot and the construction of a large church.

The new church will be erected at the earliest practical moment.

The offer declined by Dr. Barrett from Chattaneoga was indeed a flattering one. It was a much larger salary than he receives from St. Luke's, and the church and parsonage are among the finest and most attractive in the south. Names of prominent ministers, from Maine to Texas, were proposed for the place, but Dr. Barrett was the man that was unanimously agreed upon.

The next name getting the largest number of endorsements for the rectorship tendered Dr. Barrett, was Rev. Oscar Bunting, of Trenton, N. J., and he will be called.

and They Discredit All Efforts to Change

The excitement over President Harrison's mes-age to the Georgia republicans has not in the least abated.

In fact, time and events convince the negroes

In fact, time and events convince the negroes that The Constitution's report was correct, and that all this cry to the centrary is simply the natural result of the facts becoming known. And the colored brother is very mad in consequence.

A telegram received from Mr. Shiel yesterday states that, while he did say to one man that he thought to be compared to the colored brother the colored was retrieved. Wr. Shiel states that what he said was entirely on his own responsibility that he was entirely on his own responsibility, that he said so at the time, and that he has neither heard was entirely on his own responsibility, that he said so at the time, and that he has neither heard from nor seen the president since last May.

A leading white republican, who is not an office holder, volunteers the information that this incident has started a strong anti-Harrison sentiment among the negroes, and the chances are they will send a solid negro delegation to Minneapolis. "They have learned," he said, "that Shiel had been to Texas, Mississippi, Alabama and Florida before coming here, and they are very slow to believe that the visit had no political significance. They laugh at that claim of Halford that Shiel was acting on his own responsibility in whatever he said. While he may have been, and I believe was, it would be hard to make them believe it."

"What about the Georgia delegation?"

"Ask me something easy. Of course Buck, Pledger and the gang will control things, and if Buck can do so he will earry out the president's orders; but I wouldn't be surprised if the convention ran away from him."

Several weak efforts have been made to hatch up some story to cause the negroes to discredit the report until the leaders can collect their wits the report until the leaders can collect their with and prepare a line of tactics, but they were so frail that they will not stand the test of the African optics and they see through the whole thing now as clearly as any one.

The excitement over the matter is not by any means confined to Atlanta, but the sentiment and felling have spread all over the state.

Mr. R. R. Shiel Talks. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., February 12.—[Special.]—Mr. R. R. Shiel, on reading the report sent out from Atlanta sabout his business in Atlanta, denounced it as faise. Said he:

I am sure that color was never mentioned. What I said I did on my own responsibility, and said so at the time. I have not seen the president since last May, and he did not know I was in the south."

AND ARE TALKING OUT FOR HILL.

A Poll Taken in Waycross Which Fa vers Democratic Success-Stockbridge Is Solid.

WAYCROSS, Ga., February 12 .- [Special.]-In a close canvass, as to the most available man, and the man most likely to win in case he should be nominated for the presidency, I find the majority of the people, all classes included, unanimously in favor of D. B. Hill. Colonel Joel L. Sweat when asked as to his choice, said: "The national democratic con-vention should, under the conditions as they now exist, nominate a ticket with which we can win, but with the light now before me I favor Hill, of New the York, for president and Gray, of Indiana, for vice president, or Gorman and Boies." Mr. W. M. Toomer, acting stenographer for the Brunswick circuit, said: "All elements and candidates of the domocratic party are practically agreed upon the question of tariff reduction.

silver question is not such one that should dismember the ranks or even claim the attention of the party in this hour of needed tariff reform. It is not necessary that men prominent in the party should now commit, themselves upon this question ; (and in so doing force an issue), which may, and is intended only to divert attention from the paramount issue.

"Senator Hill appreciates this. Mr. Cleveland does not. For this and for his staunch adherence to his party's welfare and principles, I prefer the able lawyer, the master politician, the valiant democrat David B. Hill."

Colonel John C. McDonald—I favor Grover Cleveland because he is the ablest exponent of the great issue, reform. The man, however, who tells in unmistakable terms how he stands on any and all issues affecting the people should receive the nomination.

Colonel Leon A. Wilson—I am for Cleveland, because the relief which the toiling and oppressed people need and demand can come only through the reform of this unequal and unjust tariff. Mr. Cleveland is the great tariff reform democrat, and is therefore in sympathy with the people in their oppressed condition.

Out of twenty expressions on the subject, eight favored Cleveland because they 'just liked the man.' Twelve were solid for Hill. Stockbridge Is Solid.

Stockbridge Is Solid.

Stockbridge and vicinity are solid for David B. Hill as a democratic standard bearer in the coming presidential contest. As an evidence of it, it is only necessary to recount what happened here a few days since.

An Atlanta evening paper requested its local correspondent at this place to interview twelve of the representative men of Stockbridge and vicinity in regard to their preferences between Cleveland and Hill. The correspondent extended the limit and interviewed eighteen of our most prominent and intelligent citizens, our most prominent and intelligent citizens, and of that number not a single one could be found who was in favor of Cleveland as the democratic standard bearer in the coming campaign, even the reporter himself being in favor of David B. Hill.

A Sudden Revelation of Popular Feeling Which Means Something.

SAVANNAH, Ga., February 12 .- [Special.]-The Savannah Evening Press, under a sensa tional heading today, says:

There is a growing sentiment in Savannah in fa-vor of David B. Hill as the candidate for the demo-cratic party for the presidency. That cannot be denied. The sentiment extends to all classes of the people, but is most conspicuous among the workers, the men who stand around the poles and get out the votes, and among the working men.

Down in the 'Fort!' the feeling in favor of Hill is getting stronger day by day, and bids fair to be enthusiastic in a short time. His admirers are talking for him, and making converts every day. They will leave no stone unturned to add to his

We are going to send a delegation from Chatham to the state convention in favor of Hill, and don't you forget it. Hill's the man for us. We want some one who will turn the republicans out. Cleveland didn't do it. Hill will. See? Then again, Hill's got nerve. This is going to be a close fight, and the republicans won't hesitate at trying to steal New York if it ges against them by a small vote. They won't do it, though, if David B. Hill is the candidate. He is not the man to say, 'Don't make any Juss, boys, let 'em have it.' No sir; Hill's ready to fight for his rights, and the rights of the democratic party, and that's the reason we're for Hill!"

CERTAINLY AGAINST CLEVELAND And Most Probable Will Be Instructed for Hill.

It adjourned to meet again next Tuesday, at which time it will confer with the state bly be held in this city during the first week in June. Reports from all parts of the state show a rapid growth in Hill sentiment. A year ago the state was practically solid for the ex-president's renomination in 1892. Today even his most ardent admirers admit that the Cleveland men in Florida are in a deoided minority.

Of the seven members of the district com There is a majority for Hill in the present here today, three were for Hill, three for Cleveland and one for Gorman. The remaining two absent, are both Hill men. There is a majority for Hill in the present composition of the state committee, and it is confidently predicted that Florida's eight delegates to the patients convention if not delegates to the national convention, if not pledged to Hill, will surely be instructed against Cleveland.

The question arose in this way: Judge Clarke set the hearing of the bill for injunction in this case for "Saturday, February 14th."

As a matter of fact, Saturday is not February 14th. This date falls on Sunday.

Judge Clarke would not hear a case on Sunday. It was his intention to hear the case on Saturday. The question now is, will Judge Clarke hear this case today, or will he lay it over until Monday?

Those interested in the Atlanta Traction Company's case wanted to know this yesterday.

The case may come up today, and it may go over until Monday.

THE RECEIVERSHIP FIGHT.

Mr. Plant Will Appear Before Judge Speet

Today. Judge Speer's receiver of the Atlanta and Flor ida Railroad Company will present to his honor in Macon today a report of his acts so far. The report cannot be voluntinous because Mr. Plant has not had possession of the property. He will state to the court that Judge Clarke's receiver refused him the control of the road. Mr. Jack Spalding has gone down to Macon, presumably to make a motion for a rule nisi to be issued against Captain Garrett. The latter's counsel will probably wait until the rule is issued and comes up before showing the cause that impelled the superintendent to refuse to recognize Mr. Plant.

Who will win in the end and which receiver will be continued is a nurse.

The Richmond and Danville Raises the Question Concerning an Amendment

GIVING POWERS TO THE COMMISSION.

The Richmond and Danville Has Been Violating Order 171, and Thinks the Commission Was Wrong.

There is a legal bout going on between the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company that is of general interest, involving as it does, that is of general interest, involving as it does, the constitutionality of an important amendment to the law prescribing the powers and duties of the Georgia railroad commission.

For some time the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company and the lines of railroad operated by it in Georgia have been, it is charged, violating the joint freight rule, embraced in a circular issued by the Georgia railroad commission on September 4, 1890. As a consequence of this numerous complaints have been sent to the commission against the roads operated by the Richmond and Danville company. Orders were served on the company to cease such violation.

In response to the following notice, which was served on the company by the railroad commission January 12, 1892, Captain Jackson, attorney for the Richmond and Danville company, filed a bill yesterday in the United States court, asking that the commission be enjoined from proceeding against said company oversals in cartain careas therein named.

enjoined from proceeding against said com-pany in certain cases therein named. The Commission's Notice.

The commission's Notice.

The commission's notice is as follows:
The numerous complaints against the Richmond and Danville system and the roads operated by them indicate the clear purpose of those roads to disregard our rule in reference to joint rates, and we find ourselves therefore under the disagreeable necessity of employing the means which the law has provided to enforce obedience to these rules and regulations.

We trust that your road will see the importance of complying with these rules and regulations at once, thereby obviating the necessity of instituting a multitude of suits against the several roads operated by the Richmond and Danville system. The commission has waited patiently for weeks in the vain hope that this would be done, and no alternative seems now left but the above indicated.

Please accept this as our formal preliminary to the institution of suits which will certainly be brought unless within thirty days there is a com-pliance with our circular No. 171.

What the Bill Sets Forth.

The bill, in a lengthy recital of details, states that in 1889 the general assembly of Georgia enacted a law amending the general railroad commission law of the state, prescribing and regulating the authority, power and duty of said commission to fix rates and regulate shipments of freight passing over two distinct and separate lines of railway from one station to another within the state limits. Acting under the authority and provisions of said amendment to the general law on September 4, 1890, the commission issued what it termed rate circular 171, fixing a joint rate schedule, laying a common rate for roads handling joint business in Georgia. The principal stipulation of this circular is that where freight from one point in Georgia to another point in Georgia is handled by two or more roads the rate to be charged shall not ex-What the Bill Sets Forth.

From beginning to end, the remedy is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's the most potent blood-cleanser, strength-restorer, and flesh-builder known to medical science. Consumption, and every form of Scrofula and blood-taint, all yield to it. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Asthma, and all severe, lingering Coughs, it's an unequaled remedy—and the only one for the Blood and Lungs that's guaranteed. It it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back.

PABST BREWING CO.

Makers Famous Milwaukee Beer.

UR method of bottling beer is the only and the best way for the simple reason that the beer goes direct from the cask to the bottle. Our brewery is the only one in the United States that conveys the beer direct from the storage cellars through an underground Pipe Line to the Bottling Department, where it is bottled without once being exposed to the open air and its impurities. It is thus kept at the same low temperature of the storage cellars all the time. This great innovation enables the Pabst Brewing Company, the Largest Brewery in the World, to furnish the public bottled beer for family or table use which contains as much, natural life as a glass drawn from a freshly tapped barrel. Our Bottled Beers are gold over the civilized world, with agents in all leading cities. Annual sales of Bottled Beer, Twenty Million Bottles.

The Constitution and the News. We observe that some of the featherhead press comment on the fact that THE CON-STITUTION'S report of the mugwump meeting at Cooper institute, in New York, on Thursday night, was sent by its special correspondent, whose report was given precedence to that of the Associated Press. This is true, in part. Our special correspondent sent a full report of the meeting, and the Associated Press did likewise. Both reports covered, in part, the same ground, and all that was news in the Associated Press report was given. The two reports, as published, gave a very full and interesting account of the mugwump kick, which is being encouraged in every possible way by the republican press and republican partisans.

THE CONSTITUTION is fortunate in having Its own correspondents in every leading city in America, whose duty it is to give the news to its many thousands of readers. Other newspapers are not so well fixed.

We are also fortunate in having an ar rangement with the Associated Press by which the readers of THE CONSTITUTION are given the advantage of its full news

The Associated Press is without equal in the completeness of its news service, but when THE CONSTITUTION wants any comments on any matter in which the democracy is vitally interested, we very much prefer to take those of our own correspondent rather than those of the Associated Press, of which Mr. Elliott F. Sheppard, of The New York Mail and Express, is president. Somehow or other his politics and ours don't mix.

There is not a republican in the United States whose heart does not warm to its cockle whenever the mugwump kick in New York is mentioned, and the bigger that kick is made to appear the Better the republicans like it, and the more eagerly do the featherhead press seize upon reports indicating the immensity of the affair. Of course, Mr. Sheppard is very much interested in making it a gigantic and soul-stirring affair.

THE CONSTITUTION may be fully relied upon to give the news of the day, and we assure our readers that there will be no mugwump or republican trimmings to it.

Georgia at the World's Fair. It is to be hoped that Georgia, through the voluntary contributions of her people will raise a fund sufficient to enable the state to make a creditable exhibit at the world's fair in Chicago.

No very large sum of money will be required. The expense will be a mere trifle when weighed in the balance with the benefits to be derived.

We believe that the matter may be safely left to the voluntary action of our citizens. The people of Georgia will not lag behind if they feel satisfied that they should go down into their pockets to have their progressive commonwealth handsomely represented at Chicago.

The Money Sharks Behind It.

The republican-mugwump "ex"-demo cratic meeting in New York has been held and its foolish and futile protest issued to the small faction which sympathizes with its action. There is no explanation in the proceedings, so far as we can see, why a protest, if one had been necessary, could not have been made in the democratic primaries, where it would have been stripped of all factitious trimmings, and where its influence would have had some effect.

Perhaps it was not necessary to give such an explanation; it certainly wasu nnecessary so far as the people are concerned. A democratic protest would have been made in a democratic way and in accordance with democratic methods. But while these mugwumps and "ex"-democrats have been drumming up names for their paper protest, the democrats of New York state have not only been sending Hill delegates to the state convention, but have been heartily endorsing the call for an early convention. This is the difference between genuine and sham democracy.

The real explanation of the Cooper Union meeting is the fact that it represents the goldbug and money shark element. This is the fact that gave the movement what little momentum it had. The goldbugs and money sharks inaugurated the movement and it is characteristic of their methods that they should strive to conceal the real purpose of their effort to cripple the democratic organization in New York state.

They have never forgiven Hill for his free silver speech at Elmira, and they do not propose to forgive him.

They hoped, by crippling the democratic party in New York, to destroy the influence of Hill, and to thus make an example of the man who was bold enough to preach genuine democratic doctrine right under the noses of the Wall street wreckers. We ask the democrats of Georgia and of the south to note this significant fact, namely: That although Mr. Hill in his Elmira speech announced himself unequivocally in favor of the free coinage of silver, the democrats of New York are more enthusiastic for him than ever. It has been said that no democrat could retain his popularity in New York state unless he catered to the financial views of the money sharks and goldbugs of Wall street. David B. Hill was bold enough to give these rascals a slap in the face by declaring for the free and unimited coinage of silver, and the result is that he is more popular than ever. The democratic farmers, who have heretofore been counted for Mr. Cleveland, are solidly for him, and the whole party is for him.

The Cooper Union protest must have been a great disappointment to the goldbugs and money sharks who engineered it. Their mugwump coadjutors were powerless to make an impression on the public mind. Ellery Anderson, to whom Mr. Cleveland addressed his last anti-silver letter, was busiest among those who were trying to cripple the democratic party in behalf of onometallism, and he must be a disappointed man tcday. There is not a break in the democratic party, not a screw loose in the machinery of the organization.

The goldbugs, money sharks and mugumps have made their effort to cripple th democratic party and have failed. The victory is with Hill, the free coinage democrat and the intrepid leader who has wrested his state from the republican corruptionists.

Let the farmers and democratic alliance men of the south make a note of the fact that David B. Hill has demonstrated that the free coinage of silver is not an unpopular issue in the great state of New York.

Getting Ready for the Inevitable. Editor Watterson is an old campaigner, and he has learned a degree of caution which the featherheads would do well to emulate.

The other day The Minneapolis Tribune playfully remarked: Mr. Watterson wishes to be informed by tele ph "collect" when his paper declares for Hill. may have a bill to pay shortly after the 21st

Editor Watterson's half-prophetic reply is s follows:

That makes a difference. If Mr. Hill is the nominee of the next national democratic conven-tion, The Courier-Journal will support him with all possible effort and activity. In the meantime, whilst Mr. Hill does not represent its judgment or its choice, it will say nothing and think nothing of him which it will have to retract.

Spoken like a genuine democrat. There is no snapping, snarling mugwump yawp in

THE BUFFALO COURIER makes a great spread to explain the facts shown in a recent editorial in THE CONSTITUTION, showing wherein Mr. Cleveland lost his home county in his second race for the presidency, while Mr. Hill carried it. The featherhead press publishes The Courier's explanation with editorial comment. It will be interesting to observe that even The Courier, one of the most intense of all the featherheads, admits: That Mr. Cleveland lost his home county in

That he lost it at the next election in 1888 by almost double the loss of 1884.

That Mr. Hill's plurality for governor was more than five thousand in 1888, at the time that Mr. Cleveland lost his home county by ore than two thousand.

That Mr. Hill's vote for governor exceeded that of Mr. Cleveland for president in 1888, in New York, by 14,647.

Of course The Courier endeavors to explain away all of these discrepancies and the uni-form victories of Governor Hill by arguing that Mr. Cleveland is really the most popular of the two in New York.

Questions of this sort are always most surely decided by appealing to the records. Accept-ing the facts and figures as given by the extreme featherhead press, the incontrovertable argument remains that Mr. Hill is very much the stronger of the two in New York

EDITOR WATTERSON touches the situation gingerly. He is not a featherhead by any

In DRESS parade politics principle makes a big how. In practical politics principle gets ther and goes to work. EOME of the Cleveland organs are studying the

GEORGIA POLITICAL NOTES.

Pulaski county politics are very quiet, and there are few who profess to know just how the slate will stand finally. Many people have been under the impression that Mr. A. T. Fountain would be a candidate for the legislature from the west side of the county. He states positively that he will not run, that his ambition now is to successfully manage the alliance warehouse. Captain J. O. Baskin, the present representative, is also men-tioned. It is understood by his friends that Mr. James Goody, president of the county alliance, will be in the race from the eastern side of the county. Dr. Y. H. Morgan, of Cochran, who represented Pulaski two terms in the house, has been spoken of for a third term. There are other parts of the county yet to hear from, and the indications are that Pulaski county will have some fine timber from which to make a selection. All of the county officers would like to succeed themselves, and perhaps will, for it would be impossible to find a more efficient set of officials than those of Pulaski county.

The Hawkinsville Dispatch says it does not look like Hon. C. C. Smith will have any opposition for the judgeship of that circuit.

At a recent meeting of the Union Brotherhood colored political society of Pulaski county, rese utions were passed urging every colored man in the county to pay his taxes and place himself in a position to exercise the right of suffrage. From The Graham Ledger.
It is certain that David B. Hill, of New York, is enjoying a great big boom just at present. He is the most conspicuous figure in the present con-gress, and his actions are watched with great in-terest by both parties. Both sides seem to be just a little bit afraid of him.

Well, one of the gentlemen named has been heard from. Mr. Coudert, at the recent reception to Governor Hill by the Manhattan Club, said of him: "Why, the good Governor Hill has done and the glory he has achieved and the splendid hatred he has aronsed; all those came about through his opposition to the wrong principles of republicanism. It has its uses, therefore, and what would become of us if it ceased to exist? Whenever I read in the papers of our friend, the enemy, that senator Hill has done mother wrong, that he has added another to the long list of the crimes of which he is accused, I only think a lattle better of him than I ever thought before, and wonder what the new good is that he has really done. There is no denying the fact that David Ben Hill is getting right up near the head of the democratic column.

At present it is by no means sure that Mr stated quite recently that nothing but the earnest pleadings of his friends prevented a public an-nonneement of his withdrawal from the race. At best he can no longer be considered as anything more than a nominal candidate, with no better show for the nomination than the darkest of dark horses. He is, to all intents and purposes, out of the race, while Hill is to all intents and purposes very much in it.

A projector and promoter of new enterprises, who has just returned from the north, says: "The feeling there is that the southern boom, which was checked sixteen months ago, is about to be re-vived. Money is so plentiful and cheap in New York that any amount of it can be obtained for legitimate investments. A few days ago the bank surplus was $30,000,000. Call money could be had on any terms. Capitalists have drawn the money there until they have millions more than is needed for the transaction of business. This money can not be allowed to lie idle. The owners want it to bring them interest, and they will put it out. The south is the most inviting field. All the investments made here have turned out well. When the Baring failure occurred, and a general financial stringency resulted, some southern enterprises felt the depression severely. But I believe that the south will be able to get this very year plenty of money for the development of railroads and mines and manufactures, and we are now, in my judgement, on the eve of the most prosperous era we have ever enjoyed."

Dupont Guerry, of Macon, has returned home. He was United States attorney in the southern district of Georgia under President Cleveland, Said he: "I have right heard much national political talk until I came to Atlanta. There is more of it here than anywhere I have been. Personally, I think it unwise for Georgia to take an active hand in the campaign at this date and create dissensions."

Mr. C. A. Mathews, one of the most active newspaper men of Charlotte, N.C., has returned te his home after a short stay in Atlanta. "I am delighted with Atlanta," said he, "and am very much impressed with its magnitude This is my first visit here, and though I expected great things, for I had heard so much about At-lanta, I am absolutely astounded at its propor-tions and the wonderful evidences of energy and

Mr. Mantell is one of the best known of the younger actors. By his splendid work as leading man to a popular star he won a high place in the esteem of the theater-going public before he essayed to lead a company himself. In D'Enery's heroic drama, as adapted by Louis Natal, Mr. Mantell has a part which fits him admirably. He is a hardsome actor. Sydney Grundy's very successful three-ac dy, "The Snowball," was produced last nigh at Edgewood Avenue theater, to a good-sized audience; for the first time in America. It is a capital piece, farcical in action, yet extremely high class and legitimate in its fun. There is scarce class and legitimate in its fun. There is scarcely any plot to speak of. The fun arises from a Felix Featherstone telling his wife that he is going to a little bachelor (dinner, instead of which he goesoff to the theater to see "Pink Domínoes," thinking all the while that his wife and her sister, accompanied by his pseudo-brother-in-law, have gone to a quiet classical concert. VIEWED IN KENTUCKY. A Comparison of the Records of Cleveland

We deride the billion congress, and forget that Cleveland created it. We despise the force bill, and forget that it could not have been born but for Cleveland's superlative ability in organizing his party for defeat. We ridicule rotten burough states, and forget that Cleveland made the congress that made the last two, and that he, and the congress which he dominated, created the first four, all of them republican, while democratic territories, clamoring for admission, were refused

We are glad to believe that Mr. Hill would not be guilty of such statesmanship. Hill goes into campaigns for success, not show; he believes generals are wanted for the purpose of winning battles, not for dress parade.

Facing republican opposition and mugwump scorn, Hill has relieved New York of its debt of a billion; has elected one United States senator and provided for another; has brought about a redis-tricting of the state and made New York demo-cratic for a generation. For this he is cursed by the dudes as a politician.

These works, if wrought by Cleveland, would have been, in the minds of his friends, marks of statesmanship, but as they were done by another, they deserve abuse, not applause.

We believe democratic service merits democratic approbation, and regardless of the author we applaud good deeds.

NEWS OF SOCIETY.

The members of the E. K. T. Club gave a de lightful dance to a number of their young lady and young gentlemen friends at the residence of Mr. Don M. Bain, on Peachtree street, last night The affair was a grand success as the E. K. T. dances always are, and was largely attended. The dancing continued until a late hour this morn Miss Lottie Sandford, of Charlotte, N. C., one of the most accomplished young ladies of the Old North State, who has been vising relatives on Windsor street, returned to her home yesterday on the vestibule. Miss Catharine Logan, of Memphis, is visting Mrs. George Hows on Smith street. Miss Logan is a musician of great ability and an elecutionist of merit. The Memphis papers have paid her some high compliments within the past year. Miss Kittle Floyd, at her home in Villa Rica, gave in honor of her beautiful and attractive guest, Miss Minnie Henley, a rhyming party Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Miss Kittle looked very charming in her evening dress of black silk and jet. Miss Henley appeared in a lovely costume of gray silk and pearls.

Yesterday's meeting of the Aurora Leigh Sc restorday's meeting of the Aurora Leigh So-ciety at the Capital college was both entertaining and instructive, being altogether historical. FROM OUR NOTEBOOKS.

They Found Friends.—A mother with four children, two of whom were critically 1:1, spent yesterday in the ladies' waiting room at the union yesterday in the ladies' waiting room at the union depot. She was on her way from a western city to the north. Her husband was to join her somewhere in Virginia. During Thursday night two of the children became so ill that the mother feared to travel beyond Atlanta until they improved. The employes around the depot and the waiting passengers took a sympathotic interest in the case and made the family as comfortable as possible during the day. Last night they resumed their journey.

They Are Happy.—Master John Francis Shirs ley, Jr., is at home to his many friends and admirers. He is only one day old, but the lovely little stranger has brought happiness to many hearts. His proud paps, Mr. J. F. Shirley, deports himself with a more dignified air, and his fond mother basks in the sunshine of his smiles.

Not All Correct.—A pretty little woman on crutches—Miss Mattic Kyle she is—called at The Constitution office yesterday to say: "What you had about me and my husband this morring wasn't quite correct in every particular. All that about my first separation and divorce—that's all right; but my husband hasn't left me and I haven't tried to get a divorce. I did go to Justice King, and I went there to serve out a pence warrant against a woman—that's all right, I don's want to deny a word of that part of the article." She brought her husand, Gus Kyle, along to give emphasis to her remarks, and the reference to the peace warrant was addressed especially to him.

The German Band.—The German band has returned to the city after an absence of about a year. Since the band left Atlanta they have traveled all over the northwest. There are nine members or the band who are Germans while the leader is a Frenchman. They are on their way south but will remain in Atlanta for some time before taking their departure.

She Is Botter.—Mrs. J. W. Rucker, who has been seriously ill for several days, is reported much better, and is fast convalescing.

A Reward for Peyton.—J. J. Woodside it very anxious to catch Frank Peyton, the missing young man who left with $197 of the rial estate man's money.

Yesterday he offered a reward of $25 for Peyton's arrest and had printed a thousand circulars, describing Peyton, that he will distribute all over the country.

Struck the Wrong Man.—"The Cleveland con-dingent don't seem to know who their men are," said a prominent young democrat vesterday. "The Chairman of their committee called on me to serve on the executive committee, not knowing that I am a red-hot Hill man. He got badly fooled." This may be one of many cases.

Extending His Business.—Mr. John M. Moore, Atlanta's successful shoe manufacturer, will open a large store in Chattanooga for the sale of shoes of his own manufacture.

He has secured a lease for a term of years on one of the handsomest stores in Chattanooga, and will equip it with all conveniences and appointments for a first-class retail shoe store.

Bob Downing's Manager.—Mr. Thomas As McKee, business manager for Robert Downing the famous tragedian, is in the city attending to the preliminary arrangements for Mr. Downing's engagements here. HILL IN NORTH CAROLINA.

A Ringing Letter from a Prominent Dem-Hon. F. B. Arendell, of Salisbury, has a letter in The Raleigh State Chronicle, in which he says:
"Will Cleveland be stronger or Hill weaker in April than February, or is it reasonable to presume that delegates with different views or different preferences would control an April convention? Would a reasonable to presume that delegates with different views or different preferences would control an April convention? Would a great leader who has been a central figure in national politics for a decade be stronger at his houre in April than in February, or would another great leader who has won the plaudits of the national democracy by brilliant achievements drop out of sight within sixty days?

"Rev. Sam Jones said, in a letter, that President farrison would doubtless be succeeded by the Harrison would doubtless be succeeded by the sharpest, brightest and most daring politician of the century. He didn't call any names, but with his snapping kodak he made a true picture of David Bennett Hill, the sharpest, brighest and most daring politician, grown into a mighty giant of American statesmanship. He has fougait the ficroest political battles ever fought in this country, and has never yet met a Waterloo. Is it a crime to be sharp and bright and daring? And possessing these largest munitions of political warfare, and with them successfully routing the hosts of Plattism and Jingolsm; should he retire and give way to those who dicker and ish while the battles are raging?

"But they say Hill wants to be president. So did Samuel J. Tilden, so did Thomas A. Hendricks, so did Andrew Jackson and Thomas Jeferson. If this be a crime, these were criminals. So does Grover Cleveland and Arthur P. Gorman, and Herace Boies and Isaac P. Gray. If it be a crime, these are criminals."

Macon, Ga., February 12.—[Special.]—The funeral services of Mrs. J. T. Coleman were held this morning. The pallbearers were W. S. Payne, F. C. Benson, W. A. S. Moore, W. P. Baldwin, J. W. MADE QUITE A SENSATION YESTERDAY.

Tragedy but Didn't-The Ryan Case Before Commissioner Parry.

The Ryan case came up again yesterdaythis time in shape of a short but decidedly Hyely hearing before Mr. H. L. Parry as special master appointed to take depositions in

It was lively because of the continued sparring between the lawyers, and the refusal of the Messrs. Ryan to answer the questions put to them; and It was lively for another reason.

That was a lively scene in which Mr. Stephen
A. Ryan and Mr. Jack J. Spalding participated. Mr. Spalding, as one of the leading attorneys for the creditors of Mr. Ryan, has figured largely in bringing the case to the present status, and it seems he is not particularly beloved by Mr. Ryan in consequence. Yesterday this unpleasant feeling came very near resulting in a personal encounter. The two met face to face, and what followed was a masterpiece in dramatic acting. Not a word was spoken, but it was thrilling and exciting,

The Hearing Yesterday Morning. The attorneys for L. and C. Wise, and others, had summoned Mr. John Ryan, Sr., Mr. John F. Ryan, Mr. Steve Ryan, and others of the Ryan family to appear at Commissioner Parry's office for the purpose of taking depositions touching the general issues in the Ryan case.

Promptly at 10 o'clock yesterday morning Mr. Steve Ryan was brought into Mr. Parry's office by Deputy Sheriff Donehoo. His father and brother were present, besides a number of Captain Jackson, Mr. Walter R. Brown, Mr.

Albert Cox, Mr. Julius L. Brown and Judge Hopkins were the attorneys representing the Ryan's creditors were represented by Messrs.

Jack J. Spalding, Thomas L. Bishop, Thod Hammond, James R. Gray, W. W. Lambdin and Alex Smith. A controversy arose at the very opening of the case as to whether the depositions should be taken in shorthand or longhand.

Mr. Ryan's attorneys insisted on long-Mr. Spalding and his associates insisted on shorthand.

"Our witnesses," said Judge Hopkins, "are under oath and refuse to answer questions ex-cept written in longhand."

But Mr. Spalding said: "It's customary to take depositions in shorthand. It's done in murder cases, when a human life is at stake, and I insist on it here."

And Commissioner Parry said: "I can go ahead and take the evidence in shorthand and Judge Clarke can decide on it." "But our witnesses may refuse to answer the ns except taken in longhand," suggested Mr. Julius Brown.

Trying to Get Answers. Commissioner Parry did not consider this difficulty but swore Mr. John F. Ryan. "I went into business," he testified, "with my brother, Stephen A. Ryan, in 1887."

"Were you a partner?" asked Mr. Spalding.
"Do not answer that," Captain Jackson interposed here.
Mr. Ryan did not answer. He was asked by Mr. Spalding if he refused to answer the ques-tions unless taken in longhand, and he replied

Mr. John Ryan, Sr., was next sworn. He refused to answer questions unless taken in longhand. Steve's Turn Next. Then Mr. Steve Ryan was called for. He out of the estate.

Mr. Spalding Laughs.

After the hearing before the commissioner had been adjourned, Mr. Spalding was talking with several friends, and a remark he made, to the effect that he was ready for Mr. Ryan, had the latter made an assault on him, found its way into the evening papers. A Constitution reporter, who saw Mr. Spalding last evening, asked him about the affair.

"Oh. it's making a mountain out of a mole-"Oh, it's making a mountain out of a mole-hill," he said, laughing. "There is nothing in it. The boys just wanted to make a good story of it, that was all."

Judge Clarke Will Decide. Should Commissioner Parry have sent all the witnesses to jail yesterday for refusing to testify?

A well-known lawyer, who was interested in the Ryan case, says that he had that authority.
"The law," said this attorney, "says that a commissioner of the superior court has the same right to summon witnesses and compel them to testify as a justice of the peace. If a witness refuses to testify, why, the law prevides that the sheriff, or any constable, shall be his officer to make them testify."

Judge Clarke will decide the matter.

WERETHEY MARRIED?

The Mystery of the Disappearance of the Minnesota School Teacher

SEEMS TO HAVE BEEN UNRAVELED.

A Story with a Very Decided Tinge of Romance—The Scenes Laid in South Carolina.

Miss Etta McBride, the missing Minnesots chool teacher, has been located at last.

She is not dead, as reported, but alive, and the vicinity of Charleston.

The story connected with her disappearance is a strange one. She left her home in Minnesota, in July, and went to Burlington, Vt., for the benefit of her health. She remained there until a few months ago, when she came south. The young lady went to Charleston, and, on November 24th, a letter reached her brotherin-law, F. W. Lamberton, stating that Miss McBride had died very suddenly two days before. Enclosed in the communication was a note from the fair school teacher, disposing of her belongings and $160 in money.

Both of these came the following day. The letter had been written by a party named Brown. Mr. Lamberton wrote to obtain further particulars of his sister-in-law's death, but received no reply.

He then decided to investigate for himself.

In the latter part of the following month he reached Charleston, and proceeded to exam-reached Charleston, and proceeded to examine into the matter. He was startled to find the young lady registered at one of the hotels the day after she was said to have died.

Mr. Lamberton looked into the records of the city and found that no one by the name of McBride had died at or near the time stated. Deeply puzzled and worried about the matter, he sought the assistance of detectives. They found that the school teacher had left Charleston in the latter part of November and ascertained that she had purchased a ticket for Atlanta.

Mr. Lamberton immediately came to this city and secured the aid of Chief Connolly. He detailed Detective Barrett upon the case, and todetailed Detective Barrett upon the case, and together with him the gentleman made a vigorous search through the city. It was without avail and Mr. Lamberton returned the following day to his home, greatly perplexed.

He left word to be communicated with should anything be heard about Miss McBride. Chief Comolly will now have information to give the man from Minnesota and it will not be disagreeable tidings.

The chief has been carefully watching the case for the past few weeks. Yesterday he ascertained where the school teacher was and immediately wrote to Chief of Police J. Elmore Martin, of Charleston, for particulars.

The great mystery has been partly unraveled. The lady has met with no foul play, nor has she suicided, as was supposed by some, but is now at Mt. Pleasant, S. C.

A few days after she disappeared so mysteriously, Miss McBride went to Oakley, S. C., where, in company with a young man, she bought a horse, borrowed a buggy and went into the country. From there they made their way to Mt. Pleasant, and it is supposed that there was a romantic marriage in the meanwhile.

Detectives Miller and McManus, of Charleston, have gone to the little town to bring Miss McBride back to that city. What reasons the charming Miss Etta could have had for her strange way of allowing her family to remain in darkness about her whereabouts is a mystery that she alone will be able to solve.

Mr. Lamberton will probably come south for his sister-in-law as soon as he can be notified. Then the entire matter will become unrayeled. raveled.

Dr. Boggs says the school will certainly be started this summer, he thinks, and says it will run four months. He says it will be a great day for Georgia when such an institution whose purpose is to teach teachers how to teach is started.

CONSTITUTION OFFICE ATLANTA, February 12, 1891. Atlanta Clearing Association Statement. Notes.

The Coalors started off with a rush this morning, Lackawanna opening at 161, selling up to 165 and closing at 151. Eading opened at 64, the highest for the day and closed at 59%. These figures took like the furry is over, but it would be well enough for traders to be shy for a time until they know that the bulls have had brass knobs put on their horns.

Loutsville and Nashville holds well, and is making a steady and dis nifed advance. Terminal hes plucked up courage, too, though it closed more than 1 per cent below the best figures for the day.

There is so much money waiting for employment that operators can easily get up a bull movement in any popular stock, and when the proper time arrives they will take up some stock now neglected and shoot

Quite an effort is being made to boost Central stocks Quite an effort is being man; to stock court western and there has been a better demand for Southwestern and some little trading in Central debentures, but Cen-tral and Georgia stocks have not made any progress of note toward better prices. Today 300 shares South-western was offered from New York at 99, but no one stood ready to buy nor bid for it.

If the control of these properties was in Georgians' hands their stocks would all go with case at much bet-ter figures than are asked for them, but with the con-trol in the hands of strangers confidence is weak, and ney seeks other avenues.

The Day on the Floor of the New York Stock

Exchange. NEW YORK, February 12 .- At the stock exchange this was another exceptionally heavy day, although there was no comparison either as to the amount of business done or the excitement attendant on trading. business done or the excitement attendant on trading. The culmination of the deal was followed by large realizations by followers of the syndicate, and there was a considerable pressure on Coal stocks from a bear source, advocates of lower figures being specially anxious to retrieve some of their losses by the recent rise, and rumors were circulated to this end recent rise, and rumors were circulated to this end that a legal proceeding would be taken to prevent the consummation of arrangements made by coal companies. Rumors, however, had no special effect, the impression being that such proceedings, if brought at all, would be for merely speculative purposes, and the declines effected in the stocks of these roads today were entirely the effect of selling to realize by speculative buyers. Coal shares were still the most prominent group in the market, but they were not so overshadowing as yesterday, and other stocks than those shadowing as yesterday, and other stocks than thos which are supposed to be benefited by, the combina-tion were largely traded in at times. London was a large seller of St. Paul and some others, but bough a large seller of St. Paul and some others, but bought little. Erie and Chicago bought Chicago Gas, but let it off in late trading with the rest of the list. Richmond and West Point stocks were very prominent on the rumors that a reorganization committee report, to be issued in a short time, would be very favorable. The bears made considerable capital out of the position of the foreign exchange market pointing out that demand bills are now dangerously near the gold exporting point and still tending upward. The transactions in Reading were, of course, most striking, and actions in Reading were, of course, most striking, and trading in the last hour was equal to anything seen yesterday after the first hour, when it fell rapidly over yesterday after the first hour, when it fell rapidly over b per cent. Early dealings in all Coalers were marked by great irregularity, and while Jersey Central rose 3 per cent and Lackswanna 4, the improvement was more than wiped out during the day. A sharp rally in Jersey Central in the last few minutes saved it from scoring a material loss for the day. New England followed the leader very closely, but other stocks were traded in within narrow limits except lows Central preferred, which was a strong point of Iowa Central preferred, which was a strong point o the day, rising 7 per cent to 55, and closing only ½ per cent below its best figures. In early dealings, after a strong opening, Reading fell away rapidly, while Jersey and Lackswanna advanced, the general while Jersey and Lackswanna advanced, the general list also showing great fregularity of the movement without scoring any material changes. Jersey after-wards gave way, but the strength in Chleago Gas pre-vented any stampede in the market for some time. Late in the day Reading again dropped suddenly and everything followed, the transactions at the time being extremely heavy. The market, under this influence, closed active and weak, notwithstanding the fluence, closed active and weak, notwithstanding the rally in a few shares in the last few minutes. The losses of note comprise only Reading 4½, New England 2½, Delaware and Hudson 2 and Cordage 1½ per cent. Bales of listed, 371,000 shares; unlisted, 5,000. NEW YORK, February 12.—The London market was a seller of the whole list, but was a buyer of Erie. The general market opened steady, and the Coalers had a moderate advance, but a great deal of realizing took place all the morning, three brokers selling 15,000 shares of Reading each. In the meanwhile, the general list was fairly strong, and in some cases some fair advances were scored. Erie was by far the strongest stock, especially as Europe gavelt support. About 1.30 p. m. it became noised around that an injunction was going to be taken out against Reading leasing the Jersey Central, as it was said to be contrary to the laws of Pennsylvania. A little while after it was stated as being positive, and a raft of long stock was forced upon the market. The biggest transactions were again in Reading and it is not at all surprising to see a big decline in the last hour, as a great deal of short stocks have been bought yesferday and today by weak margin men and they had to let go. The people that have engineered this Coal deal are the shrewdest people that we have in finance in this country, and we do not think for a moment that they would engineer a deal which would be contrary to the laws of the states in which these Coal companies are situated. There is no doubt that the most prominent lawyers have been consulted, and the deal would never have been consumed if it had not been with their consent. We rather think this rumor was spring on the market to choke out weak holders. The market tomorrow will probably be feverish, but we think that at a concession the Coalers will be again a purchase.

NEW YORK, February 12.—An advance of 4-64d was the response that Liverpool made this morning to our improvement of yeaterday. Part of it was lost before the close which, however, was steady at 2 to 3-64d improvement on last night's figures. Private cables to us from Manchester report that there is a better feeling in the market there, and that the outlook is decidedly improved. The official cable reports a hardening tendency in the yarn market, with a better inquiry for cloths although but little new business has as yet resulted. The New York market opened steady at about last night's prices, but by 11 o'clock had declined fully ten points as compared with last evening. The cause of the decline was selling to realize upon the apprehension of a very heavy interior movement this week. The offerings were not, however, excessive, and with their exhaustion the market again improved, and by 1 o'clock had recovered five points of the earlier loss. The situation does not give evidence of any very with their exhaustion the market again improved, and by 1 o'clock had recovered five points of the earlier loss. The situation does not give evidence of any very large long interest. The liquidation earlier in the week seems to have exhausted the supply of weakly held long cotton, and we are inclined to believe that the surplus supply through the medium of future contracts is daily drifting into strong hands who will be disposed to hold it pending developments, which they probably believe will foreshadow a much-reduced production next year. The interior movement promises to be about 50,000 against 41,000 last year, and the indicated plantation deliveries are about 170,000 against 128,000 last year. Our New Orleans telegrams indicate that the total amount coming in sight this week will be 205,000 against 149,000 last year. These figures are enormous, but the movement of this year's crop is getting to be daily less regarded as the talk of reduced production next season becomes more general. New Orleans receipts tomorrow are estimated at 6,000 bales. During the afternoon the market continued steady, closing within about six points of last evening, some of the sellers of the morning covering during the afternoon as a result of a lighter interior movement than had been expected. Receipts at twenty-four interior towns foot up about 47,000 against 41,000 last year. We have the following estimates of next week's port receipts from our correspondents at the various markets, namely: New Orleans, 55,000 to 60,000; Savannah, 10,000; Charleston, 6000; Norfork, 6,500. These figures point to a total port movement of about 130,000 bales against 122,000 last year.

Lehman Bros.' Cotton Letter

By private wire to A. P. Youngblood. NEW YORK, February 12.—Our market opened steady this morning at about last night's figures. Very soon thereafter, however, prices began to sag, and, with the news from the interior, sold off some 10 to 12 with the news from the interior, sold off some 10 to 12 points from the best of the day. There have been slight recoveries, but, in the main, values after the decline have been steady, and showed but little change. Local shorts have covered a trifle, after first offering the market down, and this, in itself, assisted in maintaining prices. The interior will be about 46,000 to 47,000, with a small loss in stocks. Pert receipts are in the ueighborhood of 182,000, so that the plantation movement will doubtless be somewhere near the figures received at the ports, and are so heavy as almost to take away hopes of the future. Notwithstanding these facts, however, there has been no weakness, and many people are still hopeful of the ultimateness. ness, and many people are still hopeful of the ultimate result. The bureau has now almost been forgotten, as this thing usually is, and we shall, therefore, be governed by the factors that come into play from day

Notice.

CITATE OF GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY.—

This is to notify all persons interested, that I, as guardian of the property of Maria C. Cassin and Cornelius P. Cassin, Jr., intend, at 9 o'clock, a. m., on March 12th, 1892, at Atlanta, Ga., to apply to the superior court of Fulton county for an order to sell the two-thirds interest which is owned by said wards in that tact or parcel of land situated, lying and being on the Carnes road in the 1269th district, G. M., of Richmond county, and containing one acre, more or less, having a front on said road of 160 feet, more or less, and running back of equal width 262 feet; bounded on the north and west by land of E. E. Schofeld, on the east by Carnes road, on the south by lands of John Tilkey; and to reinvest the proceeds of same in the stock of the Georgia Loan, Savings and Banking Company, as the above described property in its present condition does not afford as good returns as the stock of said bank will do, and as it is believed, the sale and reinvestment will be for the best interest of my wards, Maria C. Cassin and Cornelius F. Cassin, Jr.

MILEAGE BOOKS.

The Commercial Travelers' Case Taken Before the Convention.

THE FORMAL PAPERS FILED YESTERDAY.

The Petition Sets Forth in Brief the Effort of the S. T. A. to Secure Thousand-Mile Books.

The commercial travelers are in carnest about those thousand-mile books-a petition filed with the railway commission of Georgia yesterday shows that. That petition was the prayer of Mr. Charles

I. Branan, of this city; he makes it both as a citizen and as the chairman of the railroad committee of the Commercial Travelers' As-

The history of this movement to secure one and two thousand mile books is pretty familiar to the people of Atlanta. For about three years the matter has been up in one way or another, all this time Mr. Branan being the chief mover in it. He has brought the matter before the railroads upon every possible ter before the railroads upon every possible opportunity, with but little encouragement, it seems. Now he comes to the railway commission, and through his attorneys, Messrs. Kontz & Conyers, asks that the commission take hold of the matter and provide the relief to which he believes the traveling public is entitled.

The Formal Prayer. The paper filed by these geutlemen yester-day sets forth concisely the status of the case.

To the Honorable Railroad Commission of the State of Georgia—The petition of C. I. Branan, a To the Honorable Railroad Commission of the State of Georgia—The petition of C. I. Branan, a citizen of Georgia—The petition of C. I. Branan, a citizen of Georgia and of Fulton county, and as chairman of the railroad committee of the Commercial Travelers' Association in said state, respectfully shows: That as such chairman he has had control of all dealings of said association with railroads; that he has, at various times, made application to, and urged upon the proper officers of railroad systems controlling roads in Georgia, the issuing of mileage books or tickets at the rate of $20 per thousand miles; that he has, before the filing of this, his petition, made the same request of the Southern Railway and Steamship Association, but, remembering their recent memorable "circular" aimed at reduced rates has deemed it unnecessary to await their reply, before filing this, his petition, with your honorable body. Petitioner believes that the interests of the people of the state demand that said request be granted, and that the same would be not only fair, but just and reasonable to the railroads. Wherefore petitioner, in behalf not only of the large body of the traveling public which he immediately represents, but as a citizen of Georgia, prays your honorable body for himself and for the benefit of the people of Georgia:

1. To require the railroads of class A, standard passenger tariffs, to sell one and two thousand mile tickets, under the same rules, and good, as at present, for one year from date of purchase, at the rate of $20 per 1000 miles.

2. That companies owning or controlling more than one line of road be required to make said books or tickets good on all their divisions of said class A.

Petitioner further prays that an early date may be set when he may be permitted to present to your honorable body the reasons why het hinks his foregoing petition should be granted; and that said railroads be given such notice as may be required by law, and the rules thereunder made by your honorable body.

C. I. Branan,

By his attorneys, Kontz & Conyers.

"I haven't anything particular to say on the subject," said Mr. Charley Branan, when seen by a Constitution reporter. "The formal paper filed by Judge Kontz, and Mr. Conyers tells the story better, perbaps, than I could myself: I would like to emphasize the fact, however, that while this movement is started by the commercial travelers, it is a movement in the interest of the public. If our prayer is granted the entire public will be benefited, for anybody can purchase the tickets. It is to for anybody can purchase the tickets. It is to the interest of the railroads, too, to grant what we ask and to encourage the traveling men every way possible. The drummers are in reality freight solicitors for the railroads; the imore trips they make and the more business they get, the more freight this means for the roads. They should, therefore, give every encouragement possible to the traveling men. Then the public is interested in another way. A reduction in traveling expenses would ena-ble the merchants to make a corresponding re-duction in their prices. Any increase in exduction in their prices. Any increase in ex-penses means a corresponding increase to the consumer—comes, in fact, from the pockets of the consumer. There seems to be every reason why our prayer should be granted, none why it should no..."

The reference to the "circular" in the petition printed above means the circular issued by the Southern Railway and Steamship Asso-ciation concerning the Georgia Southern and Florida's cut in rates.

Members of the association and the public

Members of the association and the public generally may be interested in knowing that Mr. Branan has placed his cause in excellent hands. Judge Kontz is well known through Georgia. As recorder of Atlanta he served the city well, and as attorney for the Pullman Palace Car Company he has had a great deal of experience in railroad litigation. Mr. Conyers, his partner, is one of the brightest young lawyers of the bar. The case before the commission is in good hands.

Five thousand lithographed or engraved invitations will be sent out. The national society has 1,000 members, and the local organizations have many more, so that 3,000 invitations will be sent to Scotch-Irishmen. Two thousand more will be sent to ne wspaper editors. The list of speakers has not yet been made up. Some of them are to be selected by the national committee, and the rest will be chosen by the Atlanta committee. Mr. A. C. Floyd, secretary of the national society, writes that Hon. A. K. McClure, of The Philadelphia Times, will be one of the speakers, and has already consented to deliver an address. His subject is not yet announced.

Mr. Joseph Medill, editor of The Chicago Trib-une, will be invited to deliver an address on the Beotch-Irish in journalism, and it is believed he will accept. A number of orators of national reputation will be heard. The local committee on speakers has promised addresses by some of the foremost men in the south, and will enliven the programme with a number of ten-minute speeches.

programme with a number of ten-minute speeches.

The committee on music is arranging a delightful programme of Scotch and Irish airs and will probably have both vocal and orchestral music. They are already in communication with the Fourth artillery and Goschen bands.

Special railroad and hotel rates will be secured and a committee will look after the placing of the visitors in comfortable quarters.

The committees meet every Thursday night to report progress and rub against each other. Much enthusiasm is generated and the preparations will go forward vigorously. Mr. Kirkpatrick, chairman of the finance committee, has enlisted a number of active men who will begin in a few days the work of raising the money necessary to take care of the convention in Atlanta style. At last night's meeting the chairman of each subcommittee was asked to make an estimate of the expense in his part of the work and report next Thursday night. These reports will be turned over to the finance committee, which will then begin the work of raising money.

A Variety of Valentines.—Mr. Frank Lester, whom everybody in Atlanta knows, has the most beautiful line of valentines perhaps that can be found in the south. He has them suitable for everybody; for the child, for the young lady, for the young man and for the old lovers. His store is literally covered with them, and those who de-sire something special for the occasion can find it at Frank Lester's, the Whitehall street stationer.

A GOOD DEAL OF TALK

Was the Result of The Constitution's Publication of Judge Rodgers's Suit. Judge Rodgers's suit against the city caused a good deal of talk yesterday.

The city officials all laugh at it, and say that nothing will ever come of it.

Ex-Mayor George Hillyer thinks that there is little to be feared from the suit by the defendants.

little to be feared from the suit by the defendants.

Speaking of it yesterday, he said:

"I am very familiar with that law under which the suit is brought. As to Messrs. Hemphill and Rice, it seems to me that there is no sort of danger. There is one section of the bill which gives an informer bringing a suit part of the penalty he may recover, and it is left to the court and jury to say how much that penalty shall be. It may be a few cents or a large amount. But it is under another section of the bill entirely different that a provision is inserted imposing a fine on individuals who issue bonds of a corporation that have not been registered in the secretary of state's office. This is just like the law which provides a fine in any case of misdemeanor. A person could be indicted in such a case, but no informer can bring a civil action for the fine as is attempted here. Besides, Messrs. Hemphill and Rice did not sell any bonds in Georgia, but in New York, and it would be hard to find a grand jury in Georgia that would indict a man for an offense committed in New York.

"The law of 1876 was passed in Mayor Hampock's time and bear one bed all the house." a man for an offense committed in New York.

"The law of 1876 was passed in Mayor Hammock's time, and he at once had all the bonds of the city registered. When I went into office as mayor in 1885 the matter seemed to have been overlooked, or omitted, and I had all bonds of the city duly registered down to date, and every time any bonds of my administration were issued, they were duly registered. Mr. Farrar, the then treasurer of the city, went out of office before any new bonds were issued, and the subject seems to have again been lost sight of until yesterday, when all the bonds issued in the until yesterday, when all the bonds issued in the meantime were again registered down to date, and on the same day this suit was trought. There have been several similar suits brought, but none of them, I think, have ever amounted to anything in the end.

"The supreme court has expressly held, as I un-derstand it, that it is in the discretion of the jury to allow no more than a mere nominal penalty, and it is hardly to be supposed that any jury would give more than mere nominal damage against the city in such a case."

AN OLD PROJECT'S NEW PROSPECTS.

Work Is to Be Resumed on the Middle Georgia and Atlantic at an Early Date. Colonel E. C. Machen says that the Middle Georgia and Atlantic railroad will be completed in the near future. He has been in Savannah in conference with the syndicate there. The first thing on the programme is to fron the road, which is already graded from Macon to Covington. is already graded from Macon to Covington. Then the company will have a line from Covington, on the Georgia road, to Eatonton, in Putnam county. That will be a good start on the road, which is to be an air-line from Covington to Savannah. The original intention was to build an air-line from Covington to Atlanta and save several miles on the Georgia, but that will not be touched until the rest of the line is completed. Being asked when the line from Eatonton to Savannah will be built, Colonel Machen stated: "Arrangements will probably be made at an early date to complete the whole line. The prospects are very bright at present. I think there will be no difficulty now in securing money to build the road. No road ever started out of or toward Savannah with such a splendid grant for the city as that of Hutchinson's island to the Middle Georgia and Atlantic, and this will be recognized by the investors. The capitalists recognize the fact that now is the time to build such a road."

A GRACEFUL TRIBUTE.

Judge Emory Speer and His Predecesso Judge Erskine.

Few men now living, whose virtues and talents have adorned the bench, hold Judge John Erskine's high place in the loving regard of the profession and the public. In his voluntary reirement, the delights of his rare scholarship, the affection of his hosts of friends and the conscious-ness of a life devoted to duty happily round out a noble career.

The Savannah News of last Thursday says:

"A touching incident occurred in the United States courtroom yesterday morning. The Hon. John Erskine, who, for nearly twenty years presided over the United States circuit court, entered the courtroom with Judge Speer and took a seat beside him, immediately under the fine portrait of himself, painted for the members of the bar and by them presented to the court after the judge's voluntary retirement from the bench.

"He listened to the proceedings in the Von der Hoya case for some time with evident interest, and as he rose to retire, Judge Speer suspended the hearing of the case, and with a grace and tenderness that cannot be portrayed, assisted his illustrious predecessor to the floor and escorted him from the room.

"The incident made a deep impression upon the spectators. The venerable and vonerated jurist, ripe in years and crowned with honors, whose utterances from the bench which he had just vacated commanded the respect and admiration of the ablest lawyers of the nation, arm in arm with his talented and comparatively youthful successor, retiring with erect carriage and firm step from the judicial halls over which he had shed so much luster, formed a striking and impressive tableau, and the occupants of the courtroom involuntarily murmured appliause.

"Judge Erskine occupies a large space in the hearts of the people of Georgia, who love to honor and see him honored. What he did for then in the dark days succeeding the war is known only to those who enjoyed his friendship.

"It is not generally known that, although the judges of the courts of the United States are appointed for life, under the constitution, yet by an act of congress passed some twenty years ago, it is optional with them to retire from active duty with full pay for life, after ten years of service and the attalnment of the age of seventy years."

Three loud-mouthed negro women were severely reprimanded by Judge Westmoreland, yesterday, for contempt of court.
They created disorder which disturbed the court, and they were arrested and sent to jail for twenty-four hours. A Big Suit.

Mr. P. W. Douglas yesterday filed a very interesting suit againt the Fidelity Mutual Life Association, of Philadelphia.

He sues for $30,000 damages.

He sets forth in his petition that he was made general agent for Georgia of that company, on January 9, 1885, for five years.

During the five years he was agent of the company he built up a big business and made a fat income. a fat income.

His contract expired in 1890 and was renewed for five years, with the same agreement He made the contract, believing that he would have exclusive right to all the Georgia territory. The company, he sets up, has failed to abide the contract, and has taken part of his territory from him, injuring him in the

He claims that he wrote $3,000,000 of insurance during the first five years he was connected with the company.

He is represented by Hall & Hammond.

The city court room presented a luxurious appearance yesterday morning.

The finest tapestry, the most luxurious hangings, magnificent freeco work, and wallpaper of the most artistic design and finest pattern were scattered over chairs and tables, and even on the judge's desk.

It was presented in the case of Pause & Schroeter against Mrs. Josephine Richards.

It was a dazzling display of luxurious deco-rations, and the spectators in the courtroom were bewildered at such a profuse display of rich draperies, soft rugs and other articles. vesterday's Constitution.
